INSTITUTE OF LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING AND RESEARCH (ILDR)

With the ever increasing number of legislation covering every aspect of human life, the importance of modern legislative drafting hardly needs any further emphasis. Legislative Drafting has its own challenges and expertise is required for drafting precise and clear legislation. The prospective Legislative Counsel needs orientation and training to develop the aptitude and skill in legislative drafting. With a view to increasing the availability of trained Legislative Counsel in the country, the Institute of Legislative Drafting and Research (ILDR) was established as a Wing of the Legislative Department, Ministry of Law and Justice in January, 1989 on the initiatives of Mrs Ramadevi, former Secretary, Legislative Department and ex-Governor. Since then, ILDR has been imparting theoretical as well as practical training in Legislative Drafting. The following courses and programmes are being conducted by ILDR namely:-

- (i) Basic Course in Legislative Drafting of 3 months' duration for the Law Officers of the State Governments and Union territory Administrations;
- (ii) Appreciation Course of 15 days' duration for the officers of the various Central Government Ministries/Departments/attached offices/subordinate and autonomous bodies who are dealing with, or likely to deal with, legislative proposals.
- (iii) Voluntary Internship Program for the students of Law pursuing 4th and 5th Year of Five year Law Degree Course or 3rd Year of Three year Law Degree Course from a recognized University or Institute.

ILDR is functioning under the Legislative Department having a Course Director who is the controlling officer of ILDR.
